

Honors College, Liberal Arts Heritage Core Requirements

effective Fall 2024

Core Requirements	Requirement description	Choose one of these courses to meet this core requirement	GE sub	Completed?
HN 2100-0x Ancient World	The liberal arts disciplines were forged in antiquity in an effort to understand the world and make sense of human experience. These courses will focus on important historical, political, and/or philosophical questions and issues salient to the classical period through the medieval period.	HI 3103 – Ancient Civilizations HI 3113 – Medieval Europe HI 4053 – History and Politics of the Middle East PO 3253 – Classical Political Thought PL 3213 – Ancient & Medieval Philosophy HN 229V – Liberal Arts Heritage: The Ancient World: Special Topics	LUHP
HN 2300-0x Modern World	The close of the late middle ages brought sweeping intellectual changes and, with them, the dawn of modernity. These courses will focus on important historical, political, and/or philosophical questions and issues salient since the 15 th and 16 th centuries.	HI 3123 – Renaissance & Reformation HI 3133 – 18 th Century Europe HI 3203 – Colonial America PO 3263 – Modern Political Thought PL 3223 – Modern Philosophy HN 249V – Liberal Arts Heritage: The Modern World: Special Topics
HN 2500-0x Literature	Throughout the ages, literature has inspired and shaped human experience – and contributed centrally to the development of a liberal arts education. These courses will highlight some of the most important literary works and grapple with the perennially significant questions they pose. NOTE: Students may satisfy this core with a minor in a foreign language or a foreign language literature course.	EN 2153 – World Literature I EN 2163 – World Literature II EN 3063 – African American Literature EN 37x3 – Studies in Genre LULT 2213 – Dante and Milton HN 269V – Liberal Arts Heritage: Literature: Special Topics	LULT
HN 3100-0x The Sciences	In the liberal arts tradition, the study of natural philosophy, later known as “science”, provided new ways of knowing driven by the posing and testing of hypotheses, systematic observation, and falsifiable prediction. These courses will expose Honors College students to the basic principles of the sciences and consider their societal implications. NOTE: STEM majors and allied health students should register for the disciplinary courses.	LUMS 3103 – The Sciences and Crises BY 1134 – Principles of Biology: Cell & Genetics BY 1144 – Principles of Biology: Diversity & Ecology CM 1113 – General Chemistry I PH 2414 – General Physics I HN 329V – Liberal Arts Heritage: The Sciences: Special Topics	LUMS
HN 3300-xx Society & Perspectives	Our liberal arts heritage grapples with questions related to the ways we interact as a society and the various perspectives we consider. These courses equip students with the tools needed for engaging in conversations of significance in a diverse world.	HI 4173 – The American Civil Rights Movement LJS 2203 – Wealth, Poverty, and The City LJS 4303 – Special Topics in the Law *Topic to be approved by HC Director LUEG 3073 – Engagements: Solving Complex Social Problems LULT 2203 – Introduction to African American Studies PL 3433 – Moral Philosophy PO 3033 – International Relations PO 3113 – Urban History and Politics PO 3153 – African Politics PS 3413 – Social Psychology PS 3464 – Personality Theories SW 3113 – Race and Ethnic Groups HN 349V – Liberal Arts Heritage: Society & Perspectives: Special Topics	LUSS
HN 3500-0x Faith & Reason	How should faith and reason relate to one another? This question has been addressed in a variety of ways throughout human history by humankind’s deepest thinkers. These courses will encourage students to consider the relationship between faith and reason by examining the role of faith across the spectrum of the traditional liberal arts.	WA 1013 – Worship and the Arts BI 2713 – Church History I BI 2723 – Church History II BI 3203 – God, Creation, and New Creation BI 4S8V – Science & Religion BI 4S9V – Joy and the Good Life HI 4013 – Religion and American Culture LULT xxx3 – various topics *Topic must be approved by Director PL 4013 – Philosophy of Religion HN 369V – Liberal Arts Heritage: Faith & Reason: Special Topics	Fifth semester Elective Bible

NOTE: Section numbers (-0x) of HN courses correspond to specific courses.