About this Provider

The mission of the College of Education is to prepare caring and committed education professionals who practice exemplary craft, exhibit attitudes and values worthy of emulation, foster collaborative relationships to improve the lives of others and demonstrate the knowledge essential to the teaching profession.

Lipscomb University's College of Education prepares educators ready to positively impact students, teachers, and schools through academic excellence, faith, practice, and community service, reflecting ideals of global citizenship. The college is committed to a mission of preparing educators who practice their craft in an exemplary manner, exhibit attitudes and values worthy of imitation, relate to members of all communities in the educational experience, and demonstrate knowledge essential to the profession. In 2016, the college was recognized as a Model of Excellence by the Association of Liberal Arts Colleges of Education. Lipscomb's secondary teacher prep program was ranked in the 99th percentile nationally by the National Council on Teacher Quality in their 2017 Teacher Prep Review, with its graduate program in elementary grades named No. 14 nationally. In 2020, the college achieved full CAEP accreditation at the initial and advanced levels, following a history of NCATE accreditation. In 2021 Lipscomb was awarded the Frank Murray award from CAEP for dedication to continuous improvement. This provider has a partnership with Teach for America Nashville. Some of the completers reported here also received training from Teach for America Nashville and are reported on that institution's report card as well.
